WILSON AT CORNISH BEGINS 10 DAY REST

family Reunion Is Held, With Baby Sayre an Important

Windsor. Vt., June 25.—President vison became Woodrow Wilson, private dingen, to-day as far as he can make possible. Secluded in his summer home in the Cornish hills of New hampshire, across the Connecticut River, the President began his vacation. He promised to obey his physician's gers to drop all work, except of the gost urgent character, and to rest and play for ten days, or longer if possible.

A reunion of the President's family marked the beginning of his vacation. The suits of Mrs. Laimbeer for $250,000 for the death of her husband and $250,000 for her own injuries, as well as the suit of the widow of Domenico Gambino, the chauffeur who was also killed, will all go over until the fall term of court. It is undersubted around a cheery wood fire woodrow Sayre, baby grandchild, were sthered around a cheery wood fire in Harlakenden House, the summer white House. Dr. Grayson, the President's physician, "physical trainer" and oifing companion, completed the Exec-

To-day was the first time the Presi nt had seen his only grandson since christening at Williamstown six reeks ago. The President arrived at Cornish at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The Sayres came on a later train, being met by Miss Wilson and Dr. Grayson. "Baby" Sayre was tossed to the beamed rafters of Barlakenden House in the President's arms and was almost smothered with grandfatherly affection.

Crowds Greet the President.

is observation platform. He shook ands with a large trowd. Factory em-loyees knocked off work to lean from

At Bellows Falls, Vt., a visitor climbed up the steps to the private car and said:
"Well, how's everything, Mr. President? You've had quite a lot of trouble lately."

The President responded only with a smile. He was in good humor during the entire trip, beaming at the crowds and bowing, bareheaded, to the cheering.
"Tou're all right!" and "Keep up the yood work!" were some sallies the President enjoyed.

Tou're all right!" and "Keep up the yood work!" were some sallies the President enjoyed. mediate enjoyed.
There was no formal reception at the mation here. A crowd of several hundred cheered lustily as the President ands of shrapnel casings an hour. The actory is working day and night, in

The workers are eleoping in impro-vised hotels, hallways and dormitories half constructed. Even some of those accompanying the President are suffer-d evening at "home," with one hour's atomobiling before dinner. The rest use is prescribed also for to-morrow by Dr. Grayson, with golfing tabooed util next week, and brief, urgent cor-espondence on public business the only rork permitted.

CROZIER-BENJAMIN.

ew York Man Marries Radeliffe's Honor Pupil.

Radeliffe's 1915 honor pupil, was mar-ried to-day to William John Crozier of home of Dean B Crozier is the son of William G. ster. He is a graduate of the College of the Cty of New York and ceived an A. M. from Harvard last years headmaster of the Hill six and Mrs. George W. Perkins will give a luncheon in honor of Gov. and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman to-day at Rodgers Hyde 3d of Waterbury, The wedding took place in the Chapel at the Hill the T. N. T. many years headmaster of the Conn. The wedding took place in the Alumni Chapel at the Hill, the Rev. John Sheff '08, of Waterbury, Conn.

HYDE-MEIGS.

De Witt-Schmels.

spend the summer camping in Maine.

Miss Grace Bastine, daughter of Mr.

$25,000 AWARD FOR MRS. PELL.

Says She Regards Award as Clearing Husband's Name.

A verdict for $25,000 was given in favor of Mrs. Elizabeth Warden Pell for the death of her husband by a jury before Justice Aspinall in the Queens county Supreme Court yesterday morning, where Mrs. Pell sued the Long Member of Party.

Island Railroad Company for $250,000 damages. Following the announcement Mrs. Pell conferred with her counsel, Judge Van Wyck, and it was thought that a motion might be made to set the verdict aside as inadequate, but it was decided to make no appeal.

"I think it is best to let the verdict stand," said Mrs. Pell later. "I could never undergo this ordeal again.

JUSTICES DESIGNATED

Franklin C. Hoyt to Preside: Mayor Fails to Appoint Mrs. Margoles-Baright.

The five Special Sessions Justices who will sit in the reorganized Children's Court after July 1 were designated by Extreme cordiality at every station Mayor Mitchel yesterday. They are: Extreme cordinativy at every station marked the President's travel here tolay from Springfield, where his private at New York was switched this mornlag to the Cornish connection. At Hollooke, Mass., a large bouquet of flowers was handed to the President on the characteristic property of the characterist

All of them, with the exception of Justice Collins, have been engaged in children's court work by assignment at the find own and every given stop the President shook hands with men, women and children, including babies holsted up to have their courts law the Children's Court is separated from Special Sessions in the matter of administration.

when a grimy pawed railroad employee at South Vernon hung back because his hands were covered with grease, the 'President said: "That's all right: I don't mind," and gave the man a hearty shake and smile.

"I'm glad you're going to have a variable to be a war of the course of the work of the course of the course of the work of the work of the course of the work of the w man a hearty shake and smile.

"I'm glad you're going to have a valuation," said a Brattleboro woman.

"So am I," said the President; and there was not any doubt in his hearers' minds that he meant it.

At Bellows Falls, Vt., a visitor climbed to the mayor a fortnight ago for appointment as a Special Sessions Justice, so that she could sit in the Chilm the steps to the private car and said:

Sold for $1,890.

sation here. A crowd of several hundred cheered lustily as the President rolled away in his automobile.

Runs Into a War Boom.

The President found this somewhat somnoient mountain village in the throes of a "war boom." Since his last trip here the village has grown greatly. Even the villagers are amased.

The machine works—the town's one big industry—is grinding out material for the Allies, consisting mostly of automatic lathes, which are shipped to England and France to turn out thousands of shrapnel casings an hour. The factory is working day and night, in laceht's canvas "The Infanta Isabella and Albert, in the Gallery of Corn. Van Der Geest" brought only $378 ($1,890).

I London, June 25.—The sale of pictures, the property of the late Lord turns, and others, $70.000 ($125,000). Individual prices were low, the highest being f892 ($4,460) brought by Van Goyen's "A View of Leyden." "A Herdsman and Animals" by Cuyp and "A River Scene" by Van Huecht's canvas "The Infanta Isabella and Albert, in the Gallery of Corn. Van Der Geest" brought only $378 ($1,890).

It had been expected that the Van Haecht's canvas "The Infanta Isabella and Albert, in the Gallery of Corn. Van Der Geest" brought only $378 ($1,890). Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Haecht would bring a high figure.

from from 250 to over 1,200 in a NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The wedding of Miss Kathryne Nevett Steele, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, to F. Skiddy von Stade will be celebrated to-day at noon A false front to the stationery store in the Church of the Advent, Westbury, as another sign of metropolitanism L. I. The reception and wedding break-retting the President. A traffic officer fast will follow at Sunridge Hall, the the State prison entrance was anthe State prison entrance was anthe is a trusty of the institution who gained fame for having, in a playful mood, driven nails into the body of a

Mr. and Mrs. George Griswold Haven,
Mr. and Mrs. George Griswold Haven,
Mr. and Mrs. George S. Trevor. The President passed this afternoon will be married to George S. Trevor.
A small reception will follow at the atomobiling before dinner. The rest home of the bride's parents, 6 East Fifty-third street.

In Trinity Church, Ossining, N. Y., this afternoon Miss Mary E. Kane, daughter of the late John I. Kane, will be married to Walter Maynard Drury.
A reception will follow at Woodlawn, the home of the bride's mother. Miss Dorothea Webb Parsons, daugh ter of Arthur Webb Parsons, will be married to James Flanagan Dechert this afternoon at the Hotel Gotham.

The wedding of Miss Helene CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 25.—Miss Loughran and Cotter Country in St. Ro-lanche M. Benjamin of Plainfield, Vt., salie's Church, Good Ground, L. I. Loughran and Cotter Connell of this Miss Eleanor Crozier Reyburn, daugh-Miss Eleanor Croxer Reyburn and ter of ex-Mayor John E. Reyburn of Philadelphia, will be married to Capt. Francis Clark Harrington, one time military aid at the White House, to-day in Pequot Chapel, New London, > Gurnee Munn, who will marry Miss Marie Louise Wanamaker in Philadelphia on Monday, will give his farewell bachelor dinner this evening at the Rac-quet Club, Philadelphia.

Miss Madeline Fliege will be married waterbury Man Marries Daughter to Assistant Surgeon Frederick Ceres, of Pottstown, Pa., Instructor. U. S. N., to-day at the home of her POTTSTOWN, Pa., June 25.—Miss Ma-don Melgs, daughter of Mrs. Marion Meigs and the late Dr. John Meigs, for give a luncheon in honor of Gov. and Dalias, assistant headmaster of the Taft School, Watertown, Conn., officiating. The best man was B. P. Hyde, Yale of their marriage. The dinner was served in the red room and there were decorations suitable to the occasion. Mrs. H. S. B. Beale of Washington, EAST ORANGE, N. J., June 25.—Be- D. C., is at the Wolcott before going to ulip tree on the lawn of her her summer home in Maine.

home on Hamilton street to-Mr. and Mrs. Francis S. Bangs are Marie Schmelz, daughter of at the Plaza until they leave for Wolles-Schmelz, became the bride cote, their summer place in Upper Sar-Jamin De Witt of New York, anac, N. Y.

James H. Snowden of Indianapolis has taken for the summer The Birches, one of George C. Boldt's cottages in the summer camping in Maine.

Harriman—Bastine.

Cote, their summer summer place in Opper Sarana, N. Y.

James H. Snowden of Indianapolis has taken for the summer The Birches, one of George C. Boldt's cottages in the Summer camping in Maine.

Harriman—Bastine.

Andrew Jackson Bastine, was Mrs. W. D. Sloane Gives $10,000. Gildersleeve Harrievening at the home annual meeting day exercises of the Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth interested tursday evening at the home annual meeting day exercises of the marriage ceremony was N. Y., that Mrs. William D. Sloane has employees who had entered a plea of by the Rev. Dr. Frederick given $10,000 with which to build a guilty of robbing her of $250 worth of silverware and clothing. County Judge

"It's a black world.

MUSICALE AT HOME OF MRS. T. N. M'CARTER

First of Series Organized by Mrs. Hawkesworth Given at Rumson Hill.

sicales organized by Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth was given yesterday at Rumson Hill, the country place of Mrs. Thomas N. McCarter in Rumson, N. J. The programme was composed largely of Russian music. Irving Fisher, bary was the soloist and the Balalaika chestra played, Alexander Kirilloff con-Julian Fuhs was at the piano. ducting. me of Mr. Fisher's songs were given with orchestral accompaniment.

Among those in the audience were Mrs. Edward D. Adams, Mrs. J. Horace Harding, Mrs. William Barbour, Mrs. William A. Jamison, Mrs. Ira Barrows, Mrs. John Jay Knox, Mrs. Edwin Drexel Godfrey and Mrs. Samuel Riker, who are the members of the committee; also Mrs. Joseph C. Hoagland, Mrs. Nelson Cromwell, Mrs. Charles D. Hal-sey, Mrs. Charles T. Cook, Mrs. Clarence Porter, Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, Mrs. John A. Rutherford, Mrs. Ernest Fahnestock, Mrs. Frederick Fredinghuysen, Mrs. Will-iam B. Kinney, Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, Mrs. Edward C. Parish, Mrs. Campbell Clark, Mrs. J. Dawson Callery, Mrs. James A. Scrymser, Mrs. J. Amory Haskell, Mrs. George Blagden, Mrs. Thatcher M. Brown, Mrs. Robert H. McCarter, Mrs. John B. Lunger and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Kean.

The next musicale will take place on July 9 at Old Oaks, the country place of Mrs. Howard S. Borden in Oceanic, N. J.

PIERRE S. DU PONT TO WED.

Take Scranton Bride.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25 .- Mr. and Mrs. Wilmington, Del.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Kennett Square, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Salem Hyde of 711 West Genesee street, Syracuse, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ann Hyde, to Maltbie L. Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Noyes Babcock of Syracuse, Miss Hyde's brother, Nelson Colling wood Hyde, married Miss Naomi Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Andrews of this city, in St. James's P. E. Church on January 20. Mr. Babcock was graduated from in 1913. He is a nephew of the late Rev. Dr. Maltbie Babcock, at one time pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church of this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Kip Farrington, formerly of West Newton, Mass., but now of New Rochelle, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Blanche V. Farrington, to George W. Johnson, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Johnson of Hackensack, N. I. Miss Farrington and Mr. Johnson who are both interested in golf an lawn tennis, passed last winter in Pine The wedding will take by the Rev. Dr. Frederick given $10,000 with which to build a guilty of the control of Windsor, Conn., cottage for thirty boys. The building sliverware and clothing, County Judge of the bride of the bride, will be known as the Sloane cottage in John R. Vunk suspended sentence upon the primary of William D. Sloane. One David Ralston and imposed a light senting attendant and the Rev. hundred delinquent boys are being cared tence upon Mrs. Vally Bernhardt Ralston acted as his for at the farm. Dr. John H. Finley ston, his wife. The Ralstons had been the primary of the farm of the Jarvis Attendant and the text function of the farm. Dr. John H. Finley ston, his wife. The Raistons had been Liberty Theatre, will be shown also washington, was the principal speaker at the exeremployed by Mrs. Booth after she had this summer at the Brighton Beach and daughter Mr. Salazar is a reclaimed them from an underworld life. Music Hall.

Mrs. Booth's Plea Saves Prisoner.

SUFFRAGE EVENTSTO-DAY

WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARTY. P. M .- Tenth Assembly district Manhattan, outdoor meeting at Stanton and Suffolk streets. Jewish speakers. 8 P. M .- The Bronx, outdoor meeting

t Washington avenue and 159th street WOMEN'S POLITICAL UNION. 11 A. M. to 6 P. M.—The W. P. U. Seventeenth Senate district wagon will go through the district from 11 A. M. intil noon. In the afternoon the wager will hold its first meetings as follows: 1 o'clock at Ninety-sixth street and second avenue; 2 o'clock at Lexington avenue and Ninety-ninth street; 3 o'clock at Madison avenue and 105th street; 4 o'clock at 106th street and First avenue; 5 o'clock at Second avenue and 115th street; 6 o'clock at 117th street and Fifth avenue.

HART EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE OF NEW JERSEY. 2 P. M .- Speeches at West Side base-

4 P. M .- Meeting at the Fairmont Hotel roof garden, for the organization of a Jersey City branch of the National College Equal Suffrage League.

SUFFRAGE HOPPING TO-NIGHT.

New Game Will Be Opened by Women at Luna Park.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's big bass 1914. drum, operated by Miss Ethel Patterson, will be one of the attractions this evening in Luna Park, when the new "suffrage amusement" known as The Hopperie will be seen for the first time. Among the members who will take part in the game are Mary Austin, the Mrs. Robert H. playwright; Inez Haynes Gillmore, the Lunger and Mrs. writer; Olga Petrova, the Russian actress: Rose O'Neill, Gen. Rosalie Jones Dorothy Dix and Jeanette Scudder, th

CHICKENS SUFFRAGE PRIZE.

Man Wins Them by Telling Why Women Should Have Vote.

Head of Powder Company Will A Broadway crowd took part in a contest for two chickens at Columbus Circle last night, where the Woman Henry S. Belin, Jr., of Scranton have Suffrage party of the Twenty-ninth As-announced the engagement of their sembly district held an open air meetinnounced the engagement of their sembly district held an open air meet-laughter, Alice, to Pierre S. du Pont of ing. The person who wrote down on a Vilmington, Del.

Pierre S. du Pont, 43 years old, is a should vote won the prize. He proved to be William B. Foley, about 30 years Pierre S. du Pont. 45 years son of the late Lammot du Pont. He is son of the late Lammot du Pont. He is to be William B. Foley, about 30 years old, of 357 West Fifty-fifth street.

Foley gave four reasons: One was Foley gave four reasons: One was that because women are taxed, and taxation without representation is not right the other reasons were that it would insure a cleaner ballot and cleaner politics.

LITTLE HOPE FOR JUDGE GRAY.

Pneumonia Follows Attack Apoplexy at Newport.

NEWPORT, June 25.—John Clinton Gray, ex-Judge of the Court of Appeals of New York, who is ill at the Pinard cottage here, was stricken with pneumonia to-day. This coupled with his condition as a result of an attack of apoplexy on Wednesday soon after his arrival here for the summer, makes his condition to-night precarious, and no encouragement is held out for his re-The members of his family who were summoned, have joined the Judge and Mrs. Gray here. Judge Gray is being attended by Dr. Charles D. Easton, who was a frequent visitor at the Gray home to-day

Plays and Players.

The Shuberts have completed arrangements with the management of rangements with the management of the Teatro Nacional of Havana whereby served for a Winter Garden produc

Lauri De Frece, Fay Compton and Beatrice Bruner of the London Galety Company will sail for the other side to-day by the steamship New York, "The Birth of a Nation," at the Liberty Theatre, will be shown also this summer at the Brighton Basic Washington, will attend with his wife

HEIRESS PLEADS SHE CAN'T LIVE ON $25,000

Kohler, Wants Part of Trust Fund.

the Surrogate's Court yesterday for maiely $98,000.

John Jacob Astor, and was at one time officers. engaged to Miss Helena Stello, now the Princess Murat, married Miss Kohler in St. Patrick's Cathedral on April 5,

Mrs. Florman, in her petition, says engage a nurse and maid for him and that it will be necessary to keep them at least a year longer. She has three other servants and a chauffeur. In addition to her apartment she has a summer cottage at Sands Point, L. I. The cost of maintaining her household, she says, is at least $2,000 a with her in the boat, including seven-hold, she says, is at least $2,000 a term members of the crew, watched the month. Under her father's will Mrs. ship plunge and listened to the cries Florman is to get $100,000 when she is 25, $100,000 more at 35 and the final $100,000 when she is 45. She serted that J. Bruce Ismay allowed believes that her needs are such that the Surrogate should authorize an advance payment at once on her first that Behr escaped in a lifeboat For a few months after his marriage Florman was employed as a gem salesman by Dreicer & Co., the Fifth ican Line were called by the claimants as expert witnesses. One of them, Capt. Robert Niss of the Bohemia, was

BAPTISM TO BE NOTABLE.

Infant Daughter of Basil M. Stevens to Wear Historic Robe. There will be an interesting ceremony to-morrow at noon in the Church of the Holy Innocents, Jersey City, when the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil M. Stevens will be christened by the Rev. G. E. Magill. The child will be named Emily Contee Lewis, after her grandmother, Mrs. Edwin A. Stevens. The robe to be worn at the christening has been in use for generations in the Stevens family. The cap of lace was made for the child's great-grandfather. George Washington Lewis, by his grandmother, Nellie Parke Custis George Washington's adopted de who was the daughter of Martha Wash ington. The godparents will be Col. Ed-win A. Lewis, the paternal grandfather; Miss Emily L. Stevens, an aunt, and Mrs Francis W. Hunter, formerly Miss Eliza beth Elkins Oliphant of Trenton, N. J. Basil M. Stevens married on October 28, 1913, Miss Helen Ward, daughter o the late Edward H. Ward of New Castle, Pa.

Collector of the Port Malone and his eputy, Henry C. Stuart, will e feijoada," the Brazilian national dis

Brazilian Dinner for Malone.

Mr. Salazar is an at-azilian Consulate.

TITANIC WIDOW SAYS PERIL WAS HIDDEN

Mrs. Florman, Formerly Miss Husband Who Was Lost, She Tells Court, Was Assured of Safety.

Mrs. Jacques Futrelle, widow of the $25,000 a year paid to her from disaster, was the chief witness yester the interest on a trust fund left her day at the trial of the White Star by her father, the late Charles Kohler, Line's suit to limit its liability for the the piano manufacturer, appeared in sinking of the great liner to approxipermission to use $25,000 of the prin- Mrs. Futrelle came down from her cipal of the $300,000 fund to meet pressing needs. Mrs. Florman is the claimants who are trying to prove that wife of Nils Florman. Her father left an estate of $4,000,000.

Mrs. Futrelle came down from her way, Yonkers, of unemic poisoning after Nils Florman, who was attentive to as the disaster was brought about Miss Katherine Force, sister of Mrs. through the carelessness of the ship's later with the assurances of cer that there was no danger. that she needs the additional $25,000 for the support of herself and infant son, who was born on January 18 last. She pays $5,000 a year for her apartment

A few minutes later, Mrs. Futrelle pays $5,000 a year for her apartment A few minutes later, Mrs. Futrelle at 777 Madison avenue and that she said, a steward warned them to go bought furnishings costing $20,000 up to the boat deck as soon as pos-when she moved into the apartment for which $15,000 is still due.

Mrs. Florman also says that when her son was born she was compelled to engage a nurse and maid for him and that it will be necessary to keep them.

She serted that J. Bruce Ismay allowed that men to get into the boats over which ad- he had supervision. It was in this way he had first placed his flancee and her parents. Two officers of the Hamburg-Ameri> mmand of the Pisa at the time Titanic disaster. Thirty hours of the Titanic disaster. Thirty hours before the giant ship struck the iceberg, he said, he had taken his ship across the same part of the ocean. Capt. Henry Meyerdierck of President Grant said that had he re ceived wireless messages such as the at-torneys for the claimants told him were received by the Titanic's captain he > would have steered about fifty miles to the south. The hearing will be continued at 10:30 this morning.

LAMBS TO GIVE MORTGAGE. Get Court Permission to Carry Out

$450,000 Deal. The Lambs Club obtained permission from Supreme Court Justice Shearn vesterday to mortgage its property at $450,000 for the purpose of paying off two outstanding mortgages $205,800 and completing and furnishing the addition to the clubhouse now in course of construction. addition to the clubhouse i finished the property will be worth $700,000 and the club has personal as-

Bishop's Son to Ald Rector. The Rev. Gilbert Darlington, who wa

recently graduated from the General Theological Seminary, is coming to Brooklyn as assistant to the Rev. T. J. Lacey, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer. He is the youngest

PIANIST JOSEFFY PTOMAINE VICTIM

Noted Musician Succumbs After an Illness of Only a Few Hours.

PLAYED UNDER LISZT

Rafael Joseffy, one of the best known piano virtuosos of the age, died suddenly yesterday at his apartment in the Northold, 3657 Broadway, between 150th Hospital. Bowers of green oak leaves and 151st streets, in his sixty-third year. Death was ascribed to ptomaine poison-

Joseffy gave several music lessons on

There were symptoms, including violent nausea, which indicated that possibly the patient had been poisoned, and when the pianist died shortly afterward the physician notified the Coroner's office.

Dr. Benjamin Schwartz, Coroner Beardon's physician nade an investigation made an investigation of the coroner of the corone Reardon's physician, made an investigation which convinced him beyond the shadow of a doubt, he said, that Joseffy died of ptomaine poisoning and he therefore issued a certificate to that effect. It is believed that the pianist Cleaned Up for Clark Nuptl Is.

their dinner to Mme. Sembrich in April he was there during the whole evening, cut, trash cleaned away from streets and alleys, and wherever possible and tion he felt for the singer but to the fact that he and her husband, Guillaume and any and all reasonable things be done to make our city as attractive as possible at this time." Nervousness Hampered Career.

Joseffy was 27 years old when he made his first appearance in this country at a concert with the orchestra under the direction of Dr. Leopold Damrosch. He was immediately acclaimed a virtuoso of the first rank. He had already won renown in Berlin and Vienna. He played with the various orchestras, travelled over the country, but his increasing nervousness brought his career as a public performer to an end. He had not played in public for nearly fifteen years.

Lossoft moved from this city to Tarle performer to an end. He had not layed in public for nearly fifteen years. Richmond Hill, Queens. The room was Joseffy moved from this city to Tarrytown, taught at the National Con-servatory of Music and received private pupils. Although he did not play in ner. public he kept himself in practice and was at times able to return to the con-in Budapest, who was the teacher of Stephen Heller. At the age of 14 he entered the Leipsic Conservatory of Music and then studied under Wenzel and Moschelle. He was there for two years and then became a pupil of Carl Taussig in Berlin. During the summers of 1870 and 1871 he was with Franz Liszt at Welmar. In 1872 he made his first appearance, with great success, in way, Yonkers, of uræmic poisoning after ness with his father and brother under an illness of about a week. He leaves the firm name of John Warren & Son of Samuel Newell Cowperthwait and Mr. War Phoebe Morgan Cowperthwait and was daughters. born in New York. He organized and was president of Cowperthwait's Furniture n 1806, and the Cowperthwalt Company f Brooklyn. J. Howard Cowperthwait. ons, was a brother.

Joseffy leaves a widow and two chil-dren, Helen and Carl. M. B. COWPERTHWAIT.

The funeral services will be held at afternoon.

Thomas Baker. Thomas Baker, 80, who took out a the bay to the society's children's sumsplit second movement on stop watches. will receive a substantial box luncheon died on Thursday at his home, 1490 Union street, Brooklyn. He was for several years the owner of a jewelry store in East New York. He leaves three daughters.

Mrs. Mary Goodrich.

New Rochelle, N. Y., June 25 --Mrs. Mary Goodrich, widow of Capt. Volunteers and won promotion on th field for bravery, died last night home of her daughter, Mrs. W Cushman, 98 Sickles avenue, eighty-fourth year. She leaves two daughters.

Seaman Lichtenstein.

Seaman Lichtenstein, 60, head of the produce firm of Seaman Lichtenstein & of Manhattan, organized by father over seventy years ago, died on Thursday at his home, 540 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. He was a member the Merchants Association of New Y and the Brooklyn League Club. leaves his wife, a son and two daughters

Brentano's New York "Booksellers to the World" BOOKS 14- marie Catalogu All the new and recent Books, in every Department of Literature, ially recommended for Periodical Department Short term Subscriptions for Magazines and Periodicals sent to Country Addresses for the Summer

MOVIES AID CHARITY AT SOUTHAMPTON

"Eternal City" Presented for Hospital's Benefit Before Large Audience.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., June 25 .- Nearly every one in the cottage colony attended the first performance in the open air garden theatre at which this evening "The Eternal City," a moving picture play, was presented, the proceeds of the performance to be given to the Southampton were arranged along the sides of the theatre and a solid mass of green formed the background for the stage.

Among the occupants of boxes were H. Thursday and went out for a walk in Davis Ives and Miss Ives, Mr and Mrs. the evening, returning home at 11 Steuart Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A B, Claffin the evening, returning home at 11 o'clock. He retired at once and in the early morning complained of feeling ill. His condition became so serious at 7:30 o'clock that members of his family sent for Dr. E. K. Browd, whose office is at 601 West 150th street, the southern end of the Northold. Dr. Browd, who had never attended the musician before, found that he was past medical help. There were symptoms, including violent; effect. It is believed that the planist was polsoned by something he ate while with friends on Thursday evening.

Funeral services will be held at the house to-morrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The body will be taken to the New York and New Jersey Crematory, at North Bergen, N. J.

Joseffy had been in poor health for several years and was at one time seriously ill with nervous prostration, but he had been stronger during the past winter and when the Bohemians gave their dinner to Mme. Sembrich in April he was there during the whole evening. cut, trash cleaned away from streets

MRS. J. C. BRACKENRIDGE DEAD

Supposedly by Accident.

Mrs. Marcia Brackenridge, wife of Public Works Commissioner was at times able to return to the con-cert platform so far as his technical readiness was concerned.

to the bathroom at 2 P. M. with an electric curling iron in her hand. She suffered from kidney trouble and was Joseffy was a native of Hunfalu in Hungary and was born there on July 3. He studied first under Brauer striking against the gas cock and forceing it open.

Mrs. Brackenridge was 50 years old.

She was the mother of two children, a daughter, who was recently married, and a son, Gavin, 21, who is away on a vacation trip and could not be

Thomas Robinson Warren.

Thomas Robinson Warren, for many years a familiar figure on the New York Stock Exchange floor, died yes-terday at his home in New Bruns-wick, N. J. of pneumonia. He was 88 years old. Mr. Warren was born in this city. He was a son of Lorn Warren and a granden of Lorn Business Dead.

Montgomery B. Cowperthwait. a the New York Stock Exchange. He married in 1855 Miss Ellisations. monigomery B. Cowpernwalt.

pioneer furniture dealer, died yesterday married in 1855 Miss Blizabeth Nellson afternoon at his home, 309 North Broad- of New Brunswick. He entered busi-

Mr. Warren leaves two sons and two

Children's Ald Excursions. Poor women and young children will enjoy to-day the first of sixteen steamhe present head of Cowperthwait & boat excursions to be given this summer by the Children's Ald Society, 105 East Twenty-second street. Twenty-second street. Ten of the ex-cursions will be provided for by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor and six by Mrs. Edward Stephen Harkness. The party to-day will be taken a short distance up the Hudson, and then down

DIED. BIRMINGHAM .- Passed away peacefully at Oroville, Cal., on June 18, 1915, the Rev. Dr. Daniel Moschel Birmingham of 130 West Fifty-seventh street, New York city.
Funeral services at St. Paul's Church.

Eighty-sixth street and West End ave-

New York, on Sunday, June 27, at 12:30 noon. ALMAN .- At Glenhead, Friday morning Emma, after a long illness widow of Emil Calman, in her seventyninth year.

Funeral services at Salem Fields Cemtery, Sunday, June 27, at 11 A. M. Kindly omit flowers. OWPERTHWAIT .- On June 25, 1915, at . his residence, 309 North Broadway, Yonkers, N. Y., Montgomery B. Cowperthwait, son of the late Samuel

Newell and Phoebe Morgan Cowper-Funeral private. Kindly omt. flowers. OSEFFY.-Rafael, on June 25, aged 61

3675 Broadway, on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment private. The Bohemians (New York Musicians' Club) announce with deep regret the death of Rafael Joseffy on Friday, June 25. Members are requested to attend the funeral services at 3673 1:30 o'clock FRANZ KNEISEL, President.

MALAGON .- On June 25, Manuel, age 40. Funeral chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, Eighth ave nue and Nineteenth street, Monday, 2 EHEGAN .-- Mother Mary Navier Me hegan, at Convent Station, N. J., June 24, 1915, in the ninety-first year of her age, sixty-ninth of her religious life and fifty-seventh as Superior of the New Jersey Sisters of Charity.

The reverend clergy, relatives and friends of the sisters and members of the St. Elizabeth Alumnæ Association are invited to attend the mass of requiem on Monday, June 2s, at 10 o'clock. Interment at Convent Station.

VARREN.—At his residence, in New Brunswick, N. J., on Friday, June 25, 1915, Thomas Robinson Warren, in the eighty-eighth year of his age. the late John Warren of New York city.

kindly requested that no flowers be sent. Notice of funeral hereafter.